43-23.2-02. FEES PAID INTO FUND

In addition to the appropriate licensing fees paid by real estate brokers and salespersons, each person licensed for the calendar year 1976 as a real estate broker or salesperson shall pay, at the time of application for such license, a separate fee in the amount of $20 which must be credited into the education, research, and recovery fund. Each person so licensed for the calendar year 1977 shall pay a like fee in the amount of $20, which shall be credited into the fund. Thereafter, any person who is licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson for the first time, either for the calendar year 1978 or for a subsequent calendar year, shall pay a fee of $20 at the time of obtaining such license which shall be credited into the fund. Except for assessments paid into the fund as provided in subsection 2 of this section, any person obtaining a broker's or salesperson's license for the first time which becomes effective for the calendar year 1978 or for a subsequent calendar year, shall pay the fee of $20 into the fund only once.
